About St. Joseph College of Arts and Commerce:

The aim of providing higher education led Dnyandeep Mandal Uttar Vasai to establish St. Joseph Degree College on 25th Aug 1995. The objective of the institute is to cater higher education to the poorer and less privileged section of the society. It also aims to create not only holistic character development of the students with quality education, but also wants its students to become a versatile personality who can face global challenges.

The college is affiliated to University of Mumbai and is recognized by UGC under 2F and 12 B statuses. Presently college run F.Y.J.C, S.Y.J.C. (Arts & Commerce), B.A, B.Com, M.A. (Economics), M.A. (Marathi), M.Com. (Accountancy), M.Com. (Management) programs. To stay in tune with the objectives of the University and to provide specialization in the unconventional subjects, college also runs several self-financed programs. We have BMS, BAF, Banking and Insurance along with career oriented programmes such as UPSC, MPSC, Banking, Remedial Coaching, English Speaking and Vocational Courses for SC, ST etc. The College is reaccredited with 'B' grade (2.70 CGPA) by NAAC in the year 2015. The success of St. Joseph College is attributed to many factors. Positive attitude of the management and administrator, young and enthusiastic staff, regular interaction with parents etc. has led the institute to maintain discipline and to produce consistently higher results in last 21 years.

Vision:

Higher Education for students of surrounding society keeping in mind national goals of creating atmosphere of brotherhood, achieve national integrity, peace and communal harmony.
