Report

Name of the Dept. Organising: Self-Finance section

Nature of the Activity: Workshop

Title: Mock-Interviews

Date: 29/9/2022

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Venue: St. Joseph College

Objectives:

1. To teach students about the look, sound and feel of actual interviews.
2. To help students gain confidence and to reflect on their communication abilities

Resource Person Details (Name with Designation):

1. Asst. Prof Jeslina Almeida
2. Asst. Prof Lovina D'cruz.

Highlights of the Session:

As the resource persons were In-house faculties, students felt at ease to solve their queries related to facing interviews. The environment during the interview was strictly professional as in a actual job interview. Simulation of an actual interview process to give them a glimpse of reality. Feedback was delivered at the end of interview process to make students know about their strengths and weaknesses.

Number of Beneficiaries: 47

Outcomes:

1. Students received feedback so as to work on areas where they had weaknesses.
2. Received learning on how to answer difficult questions, develop interview strategies and how to improvise on communication skills.
3. Reduced their stress before facing an actual job interview.
